DUO'S STORY:

The encounter between the war orphan Duo, and the church. As well as the mystery behind his braid, the tale is packed with crucial points that formed the Duo we know today!

The man who makes his own name:
The "Maxwell" mystery.

Duo was once a war orphan, wandering alone through the colonies, until the priest and Sister Helen took him in and lavishly showered him with love. For Duo, the warmth of a loving family, which he experienced for the first time, was a big source of support. However, war took the church away from Duo. His taking the surname "Maxwell" might have been a personal oath of sorts. In any case, the way he calls himself the god of Death, yet at the same time names himself after the church reveals something of Duo's subtleties. The poor citizens of the colonies, and drifting street urchins like Duo, don't have full names to begin with, even the name "Duo" was adopted after he met Solo, another urchin who died of a virus. Thus, Duo builds his name from his various experiences, and his name is his life story itself.

▲ Father Maxwell, who was like a father to Duo.

It was Sister Helen who first braided Duo's hair. ▶

Was it just unhygenic?:
The secret behind the braid.

Duo didn't have his hair braided when he was little - instead he'd simply wear his hair long. Was he just being lazy? No, it was just that there was nobody to show him how to neatly gather long hair. He liked the braid that Sister Helen happened to make for him, and he's continued to do it ever since. The name, the braid - the church has had a great influence upon him. These are glimpses of the part of his personality that cherishes the bonds between people.

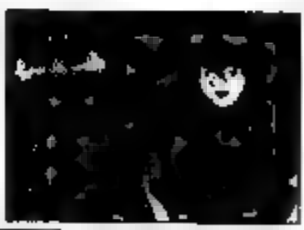
His connection with G:
Death and Pestilence.

Duo's role in the Gundam Wing story begins when the boy who calls himself the god of Death meets up with Professor G. After meeting Professor G, he somehow becomes involved with "Operation Meteor" (a plan to drop a colony onto Earth, and then take over during the ensuing chaos). But seeing how strongly Duo opposes the plan, Prof. G suggests that he steal the Gundam Deathscythe. Rather than playing the mass-murdering "hero," Duo chooses to descend to Earth as the god of Death and fight the Alliance, going on to meet Heero and company there. If Duo is Death, you might call Professor G Pestilence.

Duo descends to Earth after G's proposal; however... ▶



Later, he gets caught and beaten, and generally has an awful time. ▼

HEERO'S STORY:

In the TV series, the stoic Heero spouts a profound line about how you should "do as your heart tells you." Let's take a closer look at that mysterious Heero.

1 A failed attack? The connection to Treize

The murder of the colony leader Heero Yuy triggered the rebellion of the colonies. Thirteen years later his right-hand man, Dekim Barton, killed Heero Yuy's assassin, Odin. At the time, Odin was traveling with another "Heero," who would end up confronting Dekim eight years later. And in A.C.196, Marienaia—the child of Treize and Dekim's daughter Lena—stands before Heero, who helped defeat Treize. Furthermore, Treize met Lena while recuperating in hospital after Heero shot him, so it could be said that Heero was the main cause of Marienaia's existence. "Heero" really is a troublemaker!

▲ Not even Heero could have imagined that he would fight Treize's daughter one year later...

2 "As your heart tells you"; The mystery behind the philosophy

▲ Odin's teachings are passed on to Heero, then to Trowa.

"As your heart tells you..." is a phrase that Heero later uses himself. The ideal that has such great influence on Heero was actually taught to him by Odin, the assassin who appears here. Odin traveled with Heero as a part of a contract, so to speak, so they could pass themselves off as a traveling father and son. This line that he taught to Heero later serves as a guide at crucial points, as when Heero participates in "Operation Meteor." You may also recall Heero saying it to Trowa when they're traveling together during the TV series. It could be said that Odin was Heero's mentor in life, and a major formative influence on his philosophy.

3 Teddy and I; The secret of the stuffed animal

The bear that Relena touches during the TV series opening actually belonged to the little girl whom Heero accidentally killed during the mission shown in Endless Waltz. It was a terrible shock to Heero that he killed a civilian during this mission. It's understandable that the teddy bear is significant to him as a symbol of peace.

▲ The story surrounding the teddy bear was truly painful for Heero...

Relena's Story:

Relena and Zechs actually met before the war ! Her fate is radically altered by the events that happen later – let's analyze her many mysteries!

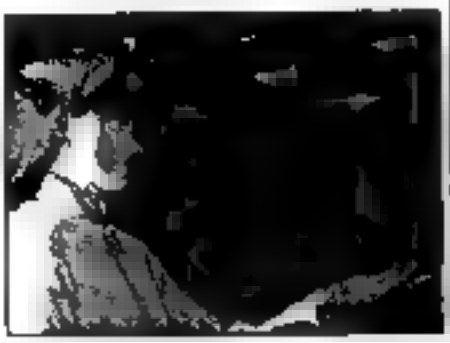
1 "What's yours...?"

The mystery of the self-introduction.

Relena was quiet and withdrawn when she was 11. But in meeting a war orphan—a boy who looked a lot like Heero—she began to remember her past. Her interest in the boy was piqued, but she couldn't convey her feelings to him, or find the courage to stand up for him. Thus, her self-introduction is tinged with the desire not to make the same mistakes twice. It could be said that this was the beginning of her pacifism.

The famous self-introduction, which also starts off the TV series. Relena realizes the importance of taking the first step. ▶

These people to you will have no regrets. A lesson she learned by meeting this boy leads to the first episode of the TV series! ▼



2 The mystery of the Vice Foreign Minister position.

You can be one at 16?

In Endless Waltz, Relena assumes the position of Vice Foreign Minister of the Earth Sphere Unified Nation at the age of 16. The Vice Foreign Minister is usually a high-ranking bureaucrat reporting to the Secretary of State. We could understand a title like "head of the Peacecraft family," or even "queen," but how Relena could become a top government official at age 16? This post was awarded in appreciation for her past achievements, as there were many colonies that solved their problems swiftly after the war, thanks to her efforts. At first, it seems to have been a strictly honorary position, but Relena was more ambitious than that. She steadily added to her accomplishments and, later, officially assumed the office. Of course, it's no coincidence that she ended up succeeding the late Vice Foreign Minister Darlian, her adoptive father. Historically, the name Peacecraft—a synonym for absolute pacifism—is more impressive, but Relena chose to keep the Darlian name, after the man who risked his life for peace.

Relena makes great impact as Vice Foreign Minister. But perhaps troubles continue for her because of her talents? ▲

3 Her brother's teachings...?

The legend of the Star Prince.

Relena first calls Heero "a prince of the stars" in the TV series. This poetic line was originally spoken by Zechs, when he met Relena during the terrorist attack on the Darlian estate. Those in the know explain that, perhaps, it means he's the prince of a now-destroyed star (as in country). This fondness for poetic phrasing must be in the Peacecraft blood.

Like brother, like sister. Far-out words no normal person would ever say. ▲

I CAN'T DIE YET
NOT UNTIL STEP FOOT ON THE EARTH.
SEE.
SO HE FOUGHT TO THE END.
THE STRONGEST
AND THE MOST NOBLE OF ALL.
CATHERINE HE TRULY IS YOUR SON.

QUATRE'S STORY:

Quatre – a young man who was greatly affected by the birthing methods of the A.C. era. The feud with his father and his encounter with the Maganac Corps; let's pursue these points of interest!

1 The father-son quarrel of cosmic proportions;

29 sisters and one stubborn dad

29 sisters... you'd think that Quatre's father was one amazing man! Actually, Quatre's sisters were all test-tube babies, from a time when natural childbirth was prohibited. Naturally, Quatre questioned his own existence, and was further upset by the idea that the Winner family could create life at their convenience. After Quatre's meeting with the Maganac Corps, he and his father reconciled briefly, but the friction between Quatre and his pacifist father continues on into the TV series. His father loved Quatre and his 29 sisters equally; what thoughts did he harbor in the end, as he died in space?

Quatre never found out that he was naturally born from his mother Catherine. But through his adventures, he gains the strength not to be preoccupied by such matters.

Quatre's father advocated pacifism and demilitarization until the very end. But his beliefs live on in Quatre, even if his son's methods are different.

2 Master Quatre moves forward–

The bond between Quatre and his "family"

Through hell or high water, the Maganac Corps pledge their loyalty to Quatre. They're a team of brave warriors who risk their lives for him, and get mad when he goes off on his own. But after this story, when did their tearful reunion take place? When Quatre shows up in the first episode of the TV series, he's already with the Maganac Corps. But when Operation Meteor began, Quatre descended to Earth by himself, like the other four Gundam pilots. According to knowledgeable sources,

Quatre had contacted Rasid before the descent, and arranged to meet up on Earth. One can't help feeling that the Maganac Corps are rather like Quatre's groupies, but there's no doubt that they're reliable friends. People talk of learning to be independent from your parents, but after the war ends, is Quatre going to have to learn to be independent from his "family"? In an age of peace, getting the Maganac Corps to re-integrate into society will be a rather serious problem.

▲ The mismatch between the upper-class Quatre and the rowdy Maganac Corps is always amusing.

3 They're not lame at all!

The mystery of the goggles

Quatre often wore a pair of goggles early in the TV series. It's not that he was trying to look clever by adapting to the Maganac Corps' desert home. Rather, Quatre inherited these goggles from Rasid, and they serve as the symbol of the Maganac Corps' leader. It appears that he wears them when he's leading the corps, and takes them off when he's acting on his own. To Quatre, they're like a badge of honor, and he doesn't much care what kind of fashion statement they're making.

Quatre has a strong sense of responsibility, so he treats the goggles with respect. ▲

BROUGHT TO YOU BY BLISO PRODUCTIONS

After Colony 194 Colony A0206
The heirs o' the Dragon Clan are required to marry at the age o' fourteen The marriage partner o' Meiran the granddaughter o' Ron Shinn the elder o' the Dragon Clan was Chang Wufei
Meiran prided herself on being the strongest o' her clan and she introduced herself as "Nataku "
You're that scholar boy
You're dissatisfied?
A person like you has no right to carry on the line o' our proud clan.
Oh? Well, it certainly wasn't my idea
Do as you please
Nataku!

Once the Dragon Clan was famed throughout Eurasia as the strongest fighting group But there came a time when those in power fearing the Dragon Clan forced them off of the continent of China which was their homeland
They were exiled to the aging Colony A0206 which had been built almost 170 years ago

~A.C.194~

CHANG WUFEI

Wufei! Why don't you ever practice fighting techniques like the others?
Why do you fight?
For Justice!
Justice?
You really think there is such a thing?
Do you want me to show you?
Go ahead

How?
How could it be?
I am the strongest of our clan
You think you're Nataku? You have a lot of nerve calling yourself by that name
So you think you won?
Think? No. I did win!
There is no justice in this world
No, you were unable to change Meiran's thinking.
Also, you don't do anything. With your strength and abilities, you could change the course of history
That has nothing to do with me. No one can change the course of history
There is no justice.
A fight based on such a thing is meaningless.
Understand that!
except in individual circumstances
But even so have to fight!
That's the way of our people!
Yes. You're smart. But are you going to just sit back, being smart and watch while history plays with human beings, and destroys their happiness, and kills them?
Hn
s that why you made these pieces of junk?
Hey Wufei, these pieces of junk need names. Can you think of anything?

Shenlon.
You're ordering the deaths of all the inhabitants of Colony A0206?
That Nataku is too weak to protect his Dragon Clan.
That's not what I said. That colony is ancient. It is no longer useful to us.
So before we put it out of commission we must disinfect it.
I agree that Colony A0206's condition makes it no longer usable. But, therefore, the inhabitants should be moved to another colony, or the system maintenance equipment should be upgraded.
VO-448 are germ weapons. As a doctor,
No, as a human being, I cannot approve of such a criminal action!
There is a dangerous factor in Colony A0206. This action is necessary to maintain the peace of the Earth system.

But...
You have been notified. Anyone who resists us must be destroyed! You understand, right?
This is insane! No way can such a massacre be allowed!
OZ forces have been released!

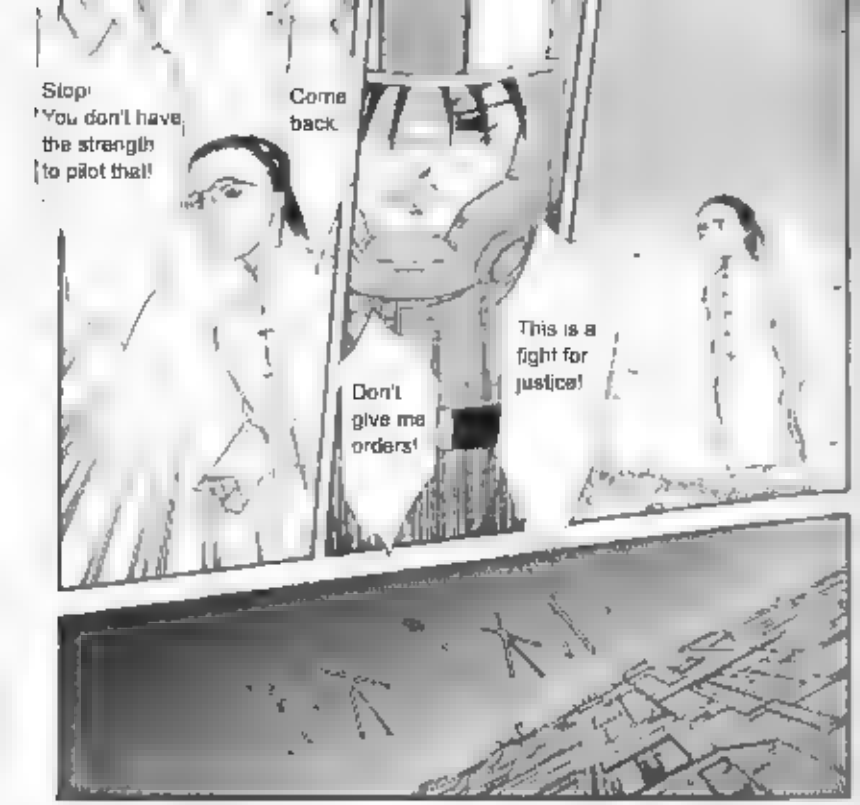
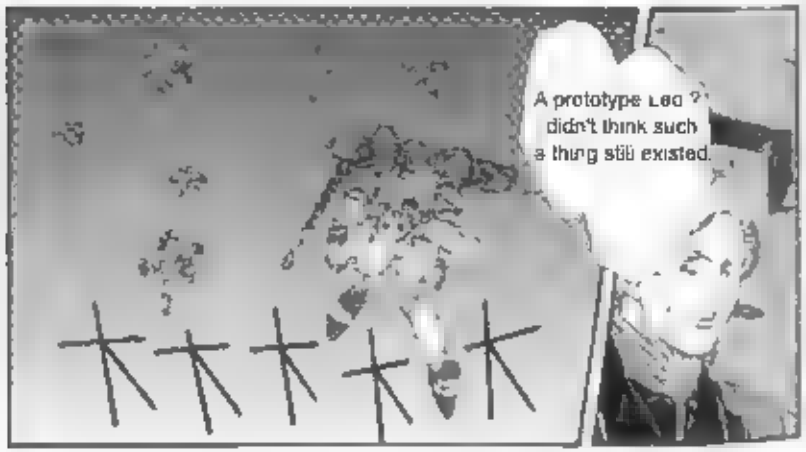
This plan to capture the colony was the first example of the divergence of OZ and the Federation's thinking.
Septem of the space force ordered the use of germ warfare to bring a quick resolution.
On the other hand, OZ's Treize had ordered a Mobile Suit attack.
For an old wreck of a colony like this, our Mobile Suits are more than enough.

Let's finish this before the Federation gets here!
Yes sir!
Stop!
You can't handle that! It's not something a woman can pilot.
Then I hereby give up being a woman and am Nataku!
Deyaaa!
The flowers are dying. I have to take this fight outside
Unf!



Stop!
You don't have the strength to pilot that!
Come back.
Don't give me orders!
This is a fight for justice!



A prototype Leo ? I didn't think such a thing still existed.

Stupid girl
How does she think she can uphold justice without any strength.?
Ooht
Fire! Attack! Attack!
Come and get me!
am justice

Ahhh
Shenlon doesn't have any weapons
Because I'm not such a coward that I can stand by while my wife is killed.
Fine. I'm not fighting for justice
Then why are you going?
What the germ warfare?
The Federation and OZ would go this far?

BASTARDS!
The Commander's ..eb has been destroyed The plan is a failure
No It's fine like this Huh?
Commander Septem reported that the plan was a success
But
There is no longer anyone alive on the colony Understood?
Y-yes.
Following this mission, Sally Po went down to Earth to work at the south JAP point Federation medical center won't lose! can't lose to these people

Yeah. You're strong. Stronger than anyone
Wife
What?

No. You are stronger
Hey, get off of me
Hey
Hey!? Open your eyes. I haven't yet shown myself worthy of being your husband!
NATAKU
NATAKU

NATAKU!!
A report has just come in that the plan to wipe clean Colony A0206 has been a success.
There has also been a report that Mobile Suits made of gundanium were present on the colony
see
Shall we tell the Federation?
No. There is no need. Those Mobile Suits represent the rebellious will of the colonies.
I wish to deal with them myself
The "justice" of space will eventually come down to Earth. I'll wait
Yes, sir
Wufei
No one will try to stand in your way anymore. Go back to your studies
No. I will live for justice
You're saying you'll pilot Shenlon?
It's Nataku
My wife protected this machine. So her spirit lives on in it.

I'm going to change these insane times!

Watch Nataku!
I swear I will bring justice!

We of the Epyon de[illegible] now occupy the Cinq Kingdom and [illegible] demands are as [illegible]
[illegible] to bear arms
That our arrested comrades be released
If these demands are not met within twenty-four hours we will detonate the military's forgotten keepsake an atomic bomb
We demand one third of the Earth Sphere's budget as ransom payment
The End

You re organ s ng a str ke team, r ght? How many people do we need? I can get together two-hundred people n twenty hours
No In twenty hours t me there be a mushroom cloud hover ng over the C ng k ngdom
Okay then I grab one-hundred people n e ghteen hours
We don t need that many people to topple the castle
Includ ng me, f ve should do
F ve?
Only Five?
http //episodezero cjb net
Here s where you can f nd them
Has s not n
Has t already left ng w thout warn ng

I thought you might be here.
Talk about a blast from the past
I have a gift for you.

Please close the door mmed ately
It took me three days to read through a these documents
You look rather busy
(*sheets are going fly ng as the door opens)
W Wufei!
Someth ng troublesome just came up. I thought I d ask for your help
Someth ng troublesome?
But I don t want to force you
And I don t have the t me to persuade you

http://episodezero.cjb.net

http://episodezero.cjb.net

You need me right?
Yes! More than anyone else
Yes
I will come I will do anything
I don't feel like I'm myself anymore
It's almost time for Trowa's turn
Look harder
Master Quatre these are the balance sheets for this term
Master Quatre?

http //episodezero cjb net

This pool is connected to the underground area of the castle
He used to hide Wing Gundam down there, right?
Right
About Heero I can't seem to find him
Heero isn't going to just sit around at a time like this Eh?
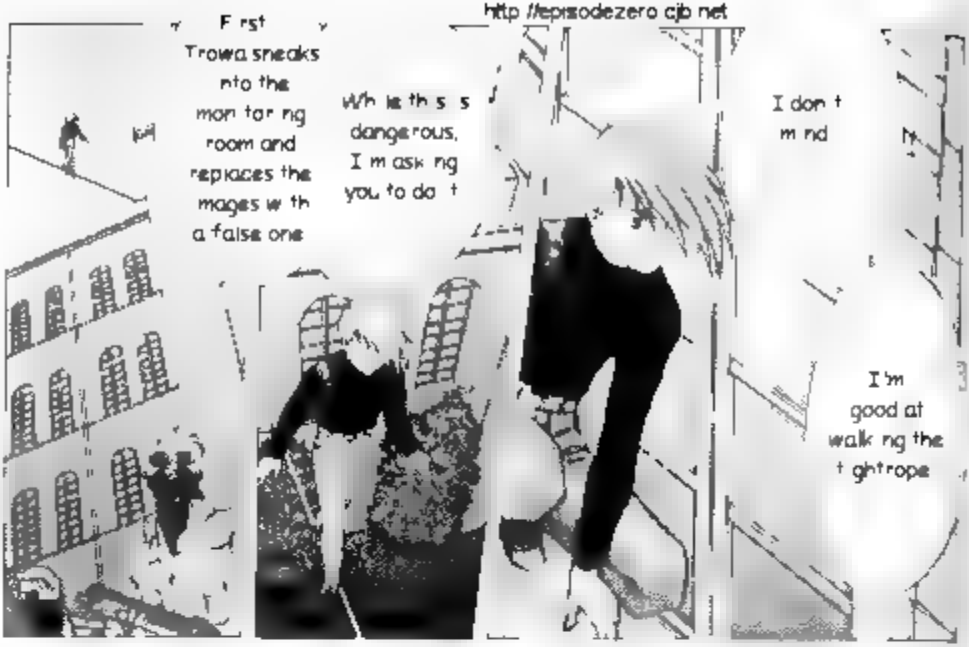
He is already here
What are we talking about?
Presently Duo and Trowa have gone to observe the situation within the castle

http://episodezero.cjb.net

I made a toy
It might be of some use
I see
You can reply in their stead after they've been downed
I'm in a bit of a hurry, unfortunately
It's a voice coder?
Quatre
That's perfect! It'll be of help
Oh man, that castle's just about been turned into a fortress
Monitors have been set up all over
The armed patrols are changed hourly
The problem is we don't know where the hostages are being held
We have to give up on that approach
If we had twenty units, it'd be another story

No
We only have one mobile suit prepared
Mobile suit?
It's a dummy replica of the Wing Gundam Zero
Dummy?
Hey
You sure that's gonna work?
That's right
Best I can do short notice
Keeping them out of the highest priority in this mission. We don't want to lose a single person. Of course we won't let them use the atomic weapon
No objections
But do you think that we can manage this without forcing our way in?
Hear me out please



First Trowa sneaks into the monitoring room and replaces the images with a false one
While this is dangerous, I'm asking you to do it
I don't mind
I'm good at walking the tightrope

And then
Wufe and Sally please bring them the ransom money

And get yousa f k led by Duo.
Who s pos ng as a sold er who s gone mad
BLAM!
That should cause a b g uproar
The t m ng s very de cate
Please make a run for t Wufe
http //episodezero cjb net
Under stood
Should I use ve ammo?
SNORT
I may k you before that

Heero, while in the Wing Zero, tell them that you're "Going to bring them under control."
W- Wait! We have an atomic bomb! You'll be blasted too!
Do what you will.
She was MY woman. I no longer have a reason to live.
At which point they should all be running to the fallout shelter.
They may not take their hostages with them into the shelter.
If that happens, we can lock them in there and slowly free the hostages.
Okay, it's perfect, right?

読者の皆さんはガンダムWを完全に理解した人たちである

まず、この本を読み終わった読者の皆さんにお願いしたい。もう一度、TVシリーズと向き合う姿勢、今部見返してほしい。そうすることによって「新機動戦記ガンダムW」という作品を、もっと深く味わうことができると思うからだ。

この一連の過去話の原型は、後の池田監督から依頼されたもので、本来ならTVシリーズの27話以降に入るべき話だった。だがその時、スケジュールが史上最悪となっていたり、後がシリーズ構成から、退いたりしたために、ずっと、オミット（帳上げ）状態になっていた。

同が再び戻った時には、もうこういった過去を描く余裕がなくなってしまい、やむなくオタク入りにしていた「唯一31話」ガラスの上国」で試みたが、今回、アニメV編集部の「原直とかんべ先生のご協力によるコミック化の運びとあいなった。生みの親の一人としては感謝この上なく、感激深い作品となった。

さて、というわけで完成したこの「EPISODE ZERO」は、満ち足りた気分で読めるいかんべあきら先生のおかげで、申し分のない本に完成した後信じている。どうぞ思う存分に理解してください。そして、サンライズやアニメV編集部の関係者各位のご支援とご協力に深く感謝する次第である。

おっと、ここで書いてて、最後の疑問にお答えしなければならない。「プリベンター5」の続きは、TVシリーズとOAVを見返していただければ分かるはずだ。彼らがどういった行動をとるか、もう自明の理だろうという判断で割愛させていただいた。どうしても気になるが、アニメV編集部に連載続行の嘆願書を出すなり、ご自身で創作されるなりしていただきたい。

どちらにしても、皆さんは「ガンダムW」を完全に理解した人たちなのだ。皆さんも最後のおもひでままに打ち切られし。それでは！

連載がはじまってみると思った以上に大変で…何度も音を上げそうに…

このたび作画を担当させていただきました、かんべあきらと申します。はじめこの話をいただいた時にも、同に安易な気持でお受けしたつもりはなかったんですけれど、連載が始まってみると思っていた以上に大変で…、いや、本当に途中で何度も音を上げそうになりましたね。やはりメカものは難しかったです。感想ってこれたのは、まくの方の御助力があってこそと大変感謝しております。担当さんもアシさんも、そしてサンライズの皆様にも多大なるご迷惑をおかけして申しわけありませんでした。原作の隅沢先生にも、私にもう少し力があれば、と申しわけなく思っております。

でも今回のこのような大役をいただき、私にとってはとても勉強になりました。本当にありがとうございました。読者の皆様には、少しでも楽しんでいただければいいです。

MAKING of EPISODE ZERO
裏マンガ工房

サンライズ製作の"EPISODE ZERO"はキャラやメカの設定など、TVやOAVに劣らず、綿密な打ち合わせのもとに制作された。ここで、そんなマンガのベン入れ以前に描かれたラフや設定を紹介しよう。

アディン&ヒイロ

▶ヒイロ編の設定ラフ。「レオンのような広い心でさまざまな物語を生みだすエリート、サンライズからは『スマート』な感覚をもたキャラがアディンに、ビギニスモボンの"30ちゃま"がタイムがポイント！

デュオの履歴

▶アニメの三つ編み姿の彼。次のページから髪にさわらないように、とサンライズからの注文に苦笑いされたラフに、でも、本当はこんなふんわりヘアイクな感じがいい、その後何すると……いたいよね？

神父&シスター

▶デュオ編のマックスウェル教会の二人。実はラフ段階では神父さんもこんなに老かったのだが、さんに変更。さらに、シスター・ベンはもうちょっと大人びた女性だった。

結婚ができるまで

▶悩みに悩む結婚のラフ画。当初は中国の女性というこだわりはなく、おさげの髪の女性が"中国の職人的イメージ"など、サンライズからの提案の一部をいろいろ手法がの模様。

ミディー・アン

▶トロン編のミディー・アンの設定。最初からリーダーとしての貫禄、そして、しかしそれと裏腹な繊細さをかすことが狙いだった女、レディ・アンとの関係？（それは本編の中です）

マンガ用シェンロンガンダム

▶制作途中のシェンロンガンダム。手の部分に武器が装備されていない状態なので、本編とは異なるラフに。"ネオ"のメカデザインでお馴染み石垣氏に依めて描いてもらったが、結局、メカ設定のリアルさを好まない、"ガンダムW"から今、のテンライズ側とスタッフの気分でラフから作成メ
